WINTER 2014

January 10, 2014

The 'Disch'

Greetings from Brookview Golf Course! Hopefully the golf season is just around the corner and Mother Nature is kind to us this spring. Last season we experienced one of the latest openings on record, opening April 26th. It was a late start, especially considering we had one of our earliest starts ever the year before on March 14, 2012. What a difference a year can make. So, like most of you I am in full anticipation for the 2014 season.

One of the biggest developments at Brookview for 2014 is the addition of lawn bowling. We are adding an amenity that that we hope provides an all ages lifetime sport to the Brookview program mix of opportunities. The lawn bowling green will be built in the parking lot just north of the Brookview Grill and is set to open in August 2014. Brookview will host league play Monday -Thursday evenings and pre-booking will begin January 6th. For more information contact us and see the enclosed article.

Slotted to return for the 2014 golf season at Brookview is the re-opening of the Par 3 Building. With the addition of lawn bowling and the removal of the upper parking lot staff felt that opening the building at the Par 3 is a necessity. Hours the building will be staffed is still to be determined but I hope this is good news for the Par 3 golfers.

As always I would like to thank you for your patronage and for playing Brookview! I can always be reached at 763-512-2315 or bdisch@brookviewgolf.com

See you soon,

~Ben Disch Golf Manager
